

WESTERN ROADTRAIN DRIVER TRAINING

RTO Number 52682

Multi-Combination

Student Information

Welcome to Western Roadtrain Driver Training. The following information is provided to assist you as a student in our Registered Training Organisation (RTO). We aim to provide you with a quality outcome for your investment in your future.

Western Roadtrain will provide you with personal tuition (driving lessons) and assess your capabilities against the TLIC4006 Drive multi-combination vehicle unit of competency.

Recognition of Prior (RPL) learning is available upon request.

Once assessed as competent we will issue you a Statement of Attainment for the unit of competency which will then qualify you to apply for a Multi Combination Vehicle Driver's License. In addition, the unit of competency can also be used as credit towards other nationally recognised qualifications.

If you have any queries, we encourage you to contact us. We are here to help you achieve your goals.

Enrolment Process

Once you have determined you are ready to commence your training with Western Roadtrain we will forward an Enrolment Form for you to complete along with other relevant information such as the need for a unique student identifier number, a MC learners permit and evidence of your having a HR or HC vehicle driver's license

The enrolment process is necessary so that Western Roadtrain can include your required information in the data that it is required to report about student participation and outcomes in Vocational Education and Training.

Completed enrolments forms are forwarded to the RTO and you will be required to pay your program fees prior to commencing. Given that your program involves the driving of a vehicle (truck), you will need to provide a current drivers licence and agree to not use drugs or alcohol in the 24 hours prior to you participating in driving activities.

Fees, Charges and Refunds

Full detail of our fees charges and refunds are provided on the enrolment form or in our policy documents. Please ask our Administrator or Trainer/Assessor for additional information if required.

Fees are required to be paid at the time of booking. Students can pay by electronic funds transfer or cash. If the fees are being paid by an employer, students must have authority from them to enroll under 'Employer payment' options and provide details of the employer's name, contact details and address for payment processing.

- Statements of Attainment will not be issued until such time as all fees have been paid in full.
- Invoices will be issued for all nationally recognised training programs, setting out the components of the fees (where costs other than course fees are charged). GST is not payable on nationally recognised training program course fees or education materials

Refunds will be paid to students according to the following schedule:

- 100% refund - Should WRDT cancel the delivery of services
- 95% refund – Cancellation for any reason, outside of 3 business days
- 95% refund – Cancellation for any reason, outside of 3 business days
- 00% refund - Cancellation for any reason, inside of 3 business days.
- Any courses or lessons being booked in will need 3 business otherwise you will forfeit all fees If you started you training and you are not ready for your test, we can post pone it and you will keep your test entitlement, however the test fee is not refundable.
- Variations to these refund conditions may be made by the Director where exceptional circumstances occur.
- All refunds will be processed within 5 working days of the advice of withdrawal, using the same method for refund as was used for payment (i.e. credit card to credit card etc).

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Once enrolled you will be provided with details of your participation - time and venue. You are required to advise us if you are unable to meet any of your scheduled sessions. In undertaking training and assessment with WRDT you must:
